It has revolutionized Kenya's financial inclusion as it allows people without bank accounts to securely deposit, withdraw, send, and receive money directly from their mobile phones.	It has made the financial landscape of Kenya more exclusionary, as it is only offered to specific groups of people.	It has made little to no difference, as most people don't see a practical use for it. Nyena adumnute ka cocacola ajaut kakigirashia Kotogo kangoli, katoni apwap nako Kenya kere.	Je, kuna umuhimu gani wa Coca-Cola kuwekwa chapa kwenye muundo huo na nchini Kenya kwa ujumla?	Coca-Cola is the continent's largest bottler, with a bottling plant right in Kisumu. Coca-Cola provides stall owners with free or subsidized branded equipment like refrigerators, umbrellas, and painted storefronts. In exchange, the stall owners agree to stock Coca-Cola products and prominently display the logo.	Coca-Cola has bought out all local markets in Kenya to create a monopoly over the soda market. They are advertising themselves on the structure to subconsciously make citizens want to buy their products more often.	Coca-Cola sponsors local businesses and has incentives that pay people to openly wear paint, and display their products. This has heavily stimulated the local markets but serves as a stark reminder that companies are slowly overtaking everyday life in Kenya. Kwa kubadilishana, wamiliki wa vitanda hukubali kuhifadhi bidhaa za Coca-Cola na kuonyesha nembo hiyo waziwazi.	Coca-Cola inenunua masoko yote ya ndani nchini Kenya ili kuunda ukiritimba juu ya soko la soda. Coca-Cola inafadhi biashara za ndani na ina motisha zinazowalipa wazi kuwapa kupaka rangi, na kuonyesha bidhaa zao hadharani.
